

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18. 1743.

Dresden, Feb. 12.

HE Baron of Demrath arrived here a few Days ago from Vienna. He had an Audience of the Royal Family, and afterwards a private one of the King, and then continued his Journey for Cologne. From this City he will proceed to Duke Arenberg's Quarters, where-ever they are, in order to the Motions of the Army, and present the necessary Requisition to the Princes thro' whose Territories they are to pass. This is complying exactly with the Princes of Germany should be the March of Foreign Succours to the Relief of Hungary, when we recollect how lately three successive Armies of his most Christian Majesty have passed thro' their Dominions, in order to

Feb. 14. On the 11th of this Month Prince Frederick, a Trumpeter. He was conducted by M. Maillebois, to whom he delivered a Letter from the Prince. Immediately upon this a great War was called, at the Rising of which a Regiment was dispatched to M. Broglie at Straubingen. This returned Yesterday, and about an Hour after was sent back to Prince Lobkowitz. All the Troops at Stradamhoff are in Motion, and likewise in all the French Posts on the Rhine. The great Magazine is to be transported to Straubingen, and most of the French Baggage is likewise advanced as far as possible. The Austrians actually make Excursions into the Gates of Straubingen.

Feb. 15. Abundance of French Generals, Officers, in their Return to France, pass daily thro' this City. Duke Clement of Bavaria is on the March, with the Duchess his Spouse, for the Emperor. Our Sovereign has actually written to the Emperor to the following Purpose.

The March of the English, Hanoverian, Austrian, and other Troops, which are to move from the Austrian Countries into Germany, ought to be considered in an Act of Violence contrary to the fundamental Laws of the Empire, dangerous, and highly prejudicial to the Potentates of Germany, at least to such as have Dominions on the Rhine, since it will draw down an Army of upwards of 100,000 Men, besides the Troops they have in Battle, and that it is to be feared, that in case these Troops should draw too near the Borders of the French, to be before-hand with their Enemies, they also enter the Empire, and so establish the War in the Heart of Germany. That as the Emperor, and other States of the Empire most exposed, are not sufficient to oppose this Violence, his Majesty thinks it very proper that the Electors, Princes, Bishops, and Bishops should, in Conformity to the Laws of the Empire, immediately write to the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, and request him from pursuing this Measure; that their Highnesses should also write to the King of Prussia, who according to all Accounts has the Empire most at Heart, on the same Terms, that they should likewise exhort the Circles of the Empire, as well as those of the Electors, to enter into a League with the Electors, for their mutual Succour and Support, and that in case they approv'd this Project, and communicated to his Electoral Highness the Copies of their Letters on this Subject, he will not fail to do so in the same Style. In the mean time, his Majesty has granted a Passage to these Troops thro' the Dutchy of Juliers, on Condition that they remain there above 16 Days, conformable to the Laws of the Empire.

Feb. 19. The Hanoverian Troops which are now in the Dutchy of Juliers, observe so strict a Discipline, that the Country People seem very desirous to have the Hessians there also, that their Provisions may come to a better Market. This Precaution is taken, that no Stranger who is not furnished with a proper Passport, is admitted into the City of Juliers, and the Hanoverian Forces are obliged to march round the Town of Juliers, instead of passing thro' it, some of their Battalions are already advanced as far as Urdingen. According to our last Advices from Bavaria, it seems as if the Austrians were determined to attack the French in all their Posts, before the Succours can arrive which they are said to expect; and this is said to be the Reason why his Imperial Majesty has again put off his Departure from Frankfort.

Brussels, Feb. 18. Some Deputies from the States of Flanders are arriv'd here, in order to make Representations against a Resolution lately taken at Vienna, to confiscate the Estates of such as are in the Spanish Service; because they apprehend that such a Step would induce the Court of Spain to make Reprisals, by seizing all the Effects of the Traders in the Low Countries, which are at present in the Dominions of Spain. Of the ten Regiments of Hessian Troops which were here, five are actually marched for Mons. A Regiment and six Companies of English Grenadiers, who arrived here Yesterday from the Neighbourhood of Bruges, are this Morning march'd for Aix la Chapelle. We are just now inform'd that a Reinforcement of five English Regiments will speedily land at Ostend. Lord Stair sets out Tomorrow for the Army.

According to the Ordinance lately published by the Czarina, 20 per Cent. is to be deducted from the Pay of every Officer in her Service, from the Field-Marshal to the Major exclusively, 15 per Cent. from the Major to the Lieutenant, and 10 per Cent. from the Lieutenant to the Staff-Officer, to be applied to the Uses of the War so long as it shall continue.

A Kind of Epidemick Fever, which first appeared in the Territory of the States of Venice, has extended itself thro' all Lombardy, the Dominions of the Church, and the Grand Duchy of Tuscany; where it rages to such a degree, that 30 or 40 die daily at Leghorn. It is thought to have been occasioned by the Vapours which followed the late Earthquakes.

The last Memorial of Count Lewenhaupt consisted of between 30 and 40 Sheets of Paper, and took up a long time in Reading; yet it gave so little Satisfaction to the States, that he has been since more strictly guarded than ever.

The Inhabitants of the Country of Vallais stick close to their Resolution of not suffering the Spaniards to pass thro' their Country. To strengthen themselves upon this Occasion, they have demanded Succours of the Cantons of Berne and Friburg, who have promised to grant them; and on Feb. 10. N.S. they were to assemble at Vivis, in order to concert proper Measures for preventing the Spanish Army from carrying their Point.

There were only four Cardinals at the Burial of Cardinal del Guidice; and on the Monday following there was but one whose Health would permit him to assist at a Consistory.

The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Norwich has been pleased to institute the Rev. John Forster, M. A. to the Rectory of Walsoken in the County of Norfolk, and Diocess of Norwich, void by the Death of the last Incumbent.

And likewise to institute the Rev. John Church, M. A. to the Rectory of Groton in the County of Suffolk, and Diocess aforesaid.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Rothes is set out for his Regiment in Flanders.

'Tis said, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Bath will be made First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury in the room of the Right Hon. the Earl of Wilmington, who is in a bad State of Health at Bath.

We hear his Majesty will speedily make a Promotion of General Officers in the Army.

A Battalion of 500 Grenadiers will be selected out of the several Regiments of Foot, in order to be sent to Flanders.
